THE ERRANT GALICIAN

ONE RUNS AWAY FROM PAIA AND ONE FROM LAHAINA.

They Conclude to Go to Work Again However—Forty from Oahu Still in Jail—Others Arrive.

PAIA, December 8.—Paia plantation has been having some trouble among its Galician laborers. One of them struck last week over a matter of his small son's pay, but was sent back to work by the court.

Another one ran away Saturday but was captured by the police at Kahuhi and returned. He said some one had told him that his contract could not hold, but he was glad to go back to work.

Lahaina, December 8.—One of the Galician laborers employed on the Lahaina plantation deserted his employment a few days ago. Search for him was unavailing. In about a week, however, he returned and announced that he was ready to go back to work. He said he had been all over the island, but like the little boy in Hawthorne's pleasing story, he had found Mr. Work everywhere. He could not find a place where men were not working, or any place where he would not have to work to make a living and had concluded that Lahaina, where his friends were, was as pleasant a place to labor as he had found.

Another Galician refused to work because he was not yet 21 years of age and had found that he could not be bound by his contract. Manager Ahlborn sent word to him that he was at perfect liberty to quit and go where he pleased. The young Galician immediately concluded that he pleased to work on Lahaina plantation, and shouldered his hoe cheerfully and went to the cane field to work.

The German bark J. C. Pfleger, which arrived in Honolulu yesterday from Bremen brought seven Galicians who had been left behind by the H. F. Glade. The seven include a man and wife and their two children, and three single men.

The forty-odd Galicians who struck on Oahu plantation and were ordered back to their work by Judge Wilcox, are still at Oahu jail.

CAPTAIN O'BRIEN.

Loses His Head and Creates a Midnight Alarm.

Captain P. H. O'Brien, formerly of the British army in India was committed to the Insane Asylum this morning for treatment.

Last night he appeared at the station house and asked for a bed. Captain Parker gave him a place to sleep. A short time later he went out, took a hack and drove away. He went first to the British consulate at Palama, and then to the residence of Rev. G. L. Pearson on Beretania street. It was late and neither gentlemen could be seen.

The folks at Mr. Pearson's were considerably frightened, and complained and Merchants' Patrol Captain Bowers went to the place and took Captain O'Brien back to the station house. He acted strangely all night and today, and upon a thorough examination was adjudged insane. O'Brien is a member of one of the local military companies. He has not been working lately.

SUGAR FLEET.

There will be quite a sugar fleet leave her on Tuesday, if present expectations are realized. The S. N. Castle, the W. G. Irwin and the Robert Lewers all expect to sail that day.

HEAVY SEA.

Heavy seas and rough weather are reported all along the windward coast of the windward islands. The Lehua was only able to land her perishable freight at Kalaupapa, and had one of her boats smashed in and destroyed doing that.

The Helene reports Konas and high seas along the Hamakua coast.

LOCAL CHINESE IMBROGLIO

VICE CONSUL GOO KIM OBJECTS TO METHODS.

Letters Touching the Administration of the Exclusion Act Have Gone to Washington and to Sewall.

The Chinese consul has sent a letter to Special Agent of the United States Sewall and Minister of Foreign Affairs Cooper, making diplomatic inquiries as to the administration of the Chinese exclusion acts at this port, particularly in relation to his own experience in connection with the Gaelic yesterday. Another letter went forward by the Gaelic to the Chinese minister at Washington, in relation to the same matter.

The facts of the matter which the consul takes exception to are these. He, together with his English speaking secretary, and Vice Consul Goo Kim Fui and Wong Kwai, went to the Pacific Mail wharf yesterday forenoon to see the Chinese aboard, one of whom is connected with the Chinese legation at Washington and another is a prominent merchant. The passes which they had were those issued before the enforcement of the United States laws, and the customs guards, acting under orders, refused to recognize them. After some delay, however, the consul and Vice Consul Wong Kwai were admitted on board. Vice Consul Goo Kim Fui was not. Later in the day these same Chinese officials were refused admittance to the wharf or vessel when they came with their friends to bid the latter good bye. These things, it is claimed, are in derogation of consular rights and dignity.

In regard to the matter Collector McStocker said:

"We are administering a law which was not framed with the conditions that exist here, in view. We are trying to administer it with as little friction and as little inconvenience as possible. But certain fixed facts must be borne in mind. Under the law no Chinese has a right to land here except upon identification and proof that he is one whom the law allows to land. Our inspection is for the purpose of receiving and acting on the proof and identification offered. Until we have rejected it, there can be no occasion for communication with a consul. Experience at other ports in the United States has proved the absolute necessity of allowing no communication between Chinese seeking to land and their countrymen ashore until this inspection and examination is made. Hence the rule that no Chinese shall be allowed aboard or even on the wharf until the inspection is made. Our own experience yesterday proved the same thing. A Chinese went alongside the ship in a boat and was conversing with the Chinese on board before the inspection was made. I could have arrested him on the spot. I let it go with a warning.

"Strictly speaking, after our examination is completed we have no objection to a Chinese going aboard. But when he is aboard he cannot be allowed to land without producing proof of his right to land, and it is no part of the duty of the customs employees to be spending their time identifying individual Chinese.

"I believe Goo Kim claims it is part of his duty to get the names of Chinese subjects coming here. He can get that unofficially from the steamship agents, officially from the custom house, and as to what disposition is made in each case, only from the office of Mr. Brown. He does not need to go aboard the steamer for that.

"We are simply administering the law. That the law touches national pride and inconveniences individuals is to be regretted. It is all summed up however in a remark a Chinese made yesterday.

"The Japanese, he said, 'do not have all this trouble.'

"No," I replied, 'because they have a treaty giving them the rights of the most favored nation.'

"If we had the right kind of government," he answered, 'we would have that kind of a treaty, too, and we will have such a government some day.'

BESTOW REAL HAPPINESS

GRATEFUL LETTERS FROM THE BISHOP HOME.

The Girls Express Their Gratitude Through a Committee—Sister Marianne Tells of the Pleasure Given.

The following letter addressed to Wray Taylor tells a joyful Christmas story. To W. Horace Wright, who proposed sending the piano to the home, to Wray Taylor who worked so hard for the success of the concert that provided it, and to all who aided in the good work, these letters will prove ample repayment in the pleasure and happiness they reflect:

Bishop Home, Kalaupapa, Molokai, December 8, 1898.

Mr. Wray Taylor, Honolulu.

Aloha Oe! We the girls of the Bishop Home, wish to convey to those kind people who recently donated us a magnificent new piano, our most sincere appreciation for such a beautiful gift. Our warmest thanks are extended to all who took part in providing us with the instrument. Wishing you all a very Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year, we are,

AGNES, PHLOMEN, CRESCENTIA, HANA, ANA, Committee.

Bishop Home, Kalaupapa, Molokai, December 8, 1898.

Dear Sir: I have received both of your kind notes, for which I thank you. Our girls are very happy and as gay as butterflies. They consider themselves lucky girls to have such a fine piano for their use. They have sent a little note of thanks to you.

I thank you in the name of all for making our children so happy. I hope at the next visit of the Board of Health you will come and hear them play. There is nothing in the world that makes them as happy as music does; they seem to forget all their troubles.

Wishing you and all the good people who took any part in the concert for our children's benefit a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year, I remain, yours,

Greatfully and respectfully, SISTER MARIANNE.

WAIANAE HOTEL.

To those who enjoy an outing there can be nothing pleasanter than a trip along the railroad and a stay at the Waianae hotel. In former days there was no place to stay at when Waianae was reached. Now there is a comfortable house, well equipped, where one can stay over night if he so desires. Indeed there are some people already who have found out the advantages of a change, and have taken their families to stay a week at a time.

The meals are good and the place thoroughly clean. There is excellent sea bathing, and the train stops a short distance from the place. Mr. and Mrs. Toogood prove good hosts, and there can be no doubt that when the place becomes known it will prove a popular resort.

WANT THEIR PAY.

Word has been received from Hilo that several of the officers of the City of Columbia intend to come here by the Kinau, due tonight, to see what can be done toward getting their pay, now so much in arrears. Among those who are coming are Chief Engineer Turner and two assistant engineers, First Officer Airey and Chief Steward Howe.

Captain Turner, the representative of the underwriters, is also expected.

PRIORY CONCERT.

The concert in aid of three orphan children attending St. Andrew's Priory will be given in Progress hall on next Thursday evening. Tickets, which are 50 cents, were issued today and are now on sale. The object of the concert is a most worthy one, and the promoters hope there will be a large audience.

COMMITTED FOR TRIAL.

Annie Kino, the Kohala girl, charged with forging the name of Representative D. H. Kahaulelio, of Lahaina, to a check on Bishop & Co., waived examination in the district court this morning, and was committed by Judge Wilcox to the circuit court for jury trial.

Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy can always be depended upon and is pleasant and safe to take. Sold by all druggists and dealers. Benson, Smith & Co., wholesale agents for the Hawaiian Islands.

FOR "HOME AND MOTHER"

LAST OF THE FIRST NEW YORK SAILS TODAY.

Companies K, M and H Go on the Scandia, Under Command of Major Sague—Officers Remaining.

Companies K, M and H, the last of the New Yorkers, will sail by the Scandia sometime this afternoon for San Francisco. Major Sague will go in command. Other officers to leave are Captain Tompkins, Lieutenants Sague, Hubne, Fowler, Worthing and Hiaman. Counting convalescents and officers there will be about 350 members of the regiment on the Scandia.

The following officers who have been and who have recovered sufficiently, follow their comrades today: per U. S. S. T. Scandia: Captain Pickard, Company E; Martin, Company F; Ronch, Company C.

Captain Hitchcock, of Company H, remains behind, being too sick to proceed. Mrs. Hitchcock is here taking care of her husband.

Camp will be broken early this afternoon. The companies will arrive on the cars from the park about 3 p. m., will form in battalion on Union square and march directly aboard the ship.

Twenty men are at Hilo. Major Sague was anxious to take them along. It is stated that only two are unable to travel and the others may be down by the Kinau tomorrow morning. Captain Hart of the Scandia refused however to hold his ship for them, being already over time in Honolulu.

Major Davis, Chaplain Schwartz and Lieutenant Vossler will remain here for the present. Most of the sick will get away by the Australia on the 27th. The Scandia will probably make San Francisco in eight days. Allowing two days there the New Yorkers would reach home two days after Christmas.

The Scandia is scheduled to leave at 4 o'clock.

SCANDIA SAILORS.

Four more sailors of the U. S. transport Scandia were before Judge Wilcox this morning on a charge of drunkenness. They went out last evening for a farewell time and overdid the thing. They pleaded guilty and sentence in each case was suspended for one month in order that they might get away.

THEY LUAU THEMSELVES.

The ladies who so successfully conducted the fair on the grounds of St. Louis college last Saturday afternoon had a luau in the old brewery building in Kalihi at noon today. Mrs. Judge Wilcox was in charge of the function. A number of special guests enjoyed the feast.

KNIGHTS TEMPLAR.

Prelate—John Phillips.

THE CLOSING MEETING.

There was quite a large attendance upon the closing evening of the Needleman evangelical meetings, at the Y. M. C. A. last night. The evangelist left by the Gaelic during the evening, but the meeting was carried out by town parties. Professor S. T. Perry of Kanehameha school, made the principal address, and Revs. Garvin and Pearson of the Christian and Methodist churches respectively, gave short talks.

LATEST SUGAR CIRCULAR

WHAT WILLETT & GRAY SAY OF THE PROSPECT.

Large Transactions Over Floating Cargoes as Far Ahead as January and February—Firm Markets.

Willet & Gray's latest circular letter, received in this city by the Moana, has this to say of the present condition of the sugar market and the probable future outlook:

The week under review shows a further advance in the raw sugar market of 1-16 of a cent per pound, with quite large transactions in cargoes to arrive, and as far ahead as January and February arrival. Large purchases in Europe by our refiners caused an important advance there for the time being. At the close buyers are more indifferent, although the quotations of 4½ cents for 96 test centrifugals is firmly held, but no further advance is indicated by the present situation. Importers stock at New York is exhausted and the offerings of cargoes, to arrive, are small.

THE CHINESE ANSWER.

Habeas Corpus Men Claim Bona Fide Permits to Return.

In the supreme court this morning there was filed the reply of the nine Chinese, held by the collector of customs from the Peking, to the return of F. B. McStocker to the application for a writ of habeas corpus. The reply sets forth:

"That neither the United States statutes relating to the immigration of Chinese into the United States nor the regulations of the United States treasury department respecting the exclusion of Chinese have been extended to the Republic of Hawaii, nor have they any force within said republic.

"That neither the said F. B. McStocker nor the said J. K. Brown have any authority to enforce said statutes within the republic of Hawaii, nor have they, or either of them, any legal authority to restrain said petitioners of their liberty.

"That said petitioners and each of them are bona fide holders of permits or documents entitling them to land in the Republic of Hawaii, which were issued to them prior to the annexation of said Republic to the United States of America on the 12th of August, 1898.

"That said permits or documents have never been revoked or cancelled and are still in full force and effect, and that the said annexation of the said Republic to the United States did not and was not intended to have any retrospective operation."

WOULD APPRECIATE BOOKS.

Persons having spare books or periodicals can perform a good service by sending them to Camp McKinley, addressed to Company K, engineers' corps. This command is endeavoring to fit up a library. Already it has some fifty volumes and is anxious to get more. There are a number of young men in the company, and the older heads are trying to fix up something for them in the camp that may be at once attractive and beneficial.

YOUR DANGER NOW

Is from the overworked condition of the liver and kidneys which are unable to expel the impurities from the blood. This causes rheumatism. Hood's Sarsaparilla has been wonderfully successful in curing this disease. It neutralizes the acid in the blood and permanently cures the aches and pains which other medicines fail to relieve. Hood's Sarsaparilla is the best winter medicine because it purifies, enriches and vitalizes the blood. It gives help just where it is needed. It tones the stomach, stimulates the liver, and arouses and sustains the kidneys.
